

HAVE YOU RECENTLY GONE BACK TO WORK?

First, congratulations! We especially like to hear from you when you go back to work if our staff played a part in getting you to that next step. For one thing, we'd like to celebrate your success with you. We post success stories on our website as an inspiration to others, and we also share them with our board of directors and funders.

We also try to get a little information about your employment to close out your record with us. If you get a job, please call us at (904) 356-JOBS (that's 5627.) Anyone who answers the phone can take the information. Or, you can go to our online survey and fill in the information there. We'll update your record and close it in our system.

But we want you to know that getting a job doesn't have to mean we part ways. We hope you'll stay in touch as you progress in your career. We may be able to help you find the next job or look into training options if a certification can help you earn more or move up in your industry. You can connect with us at a career center or online. Email us at info@careersourcenefl.com if you think we can help.

If your new position puts you in a position to hire employees for your new employer, don't forget that we can help. Contact our business services team to see how we can help you locate, screen, or assess candidates for your company's jobs.
