

CONNECT TO DATA THAT HELPS YOUR COMPANY STAY COMPETITIVE

You might want to start by researching Northeast Florida's labor market. At our orientation site, gocareersource.com, look for the Business Services section on the menu. You'll find links to sites that provide valuable information on occupations, salaries, and the economic outlook in Northeast Florida.

You can research:

- Labor Market Statistics, Local Unemployment Figures, and explore Florida's Research and Economic Information Database.
- We also link to O\*Net, the US Department of Labor's occupational classification site, which includes information on almost 1,000 occupations covering the entire U.S. economy.

O*NET provides critical information on essential elements of job performance for:

- managers
- interviewers
- human resources personnel
- professional and trade associations
- industry associations
- job development specialists
- training facilitators
- job analysts

O*NET is designed to be the nation's most comprehensive resource of occupational information, with a database system that includes 275 descriptors about each occupation. You can use the information in O*NET OnLine to:

- develop effective job descriptions quickly and easily,
- expand the pool of quality candidates for open positions,
- define employee or job-specific success factors,
- align organizational development with workplace needs,
- refine your recruitment and training goals, and design competitive compensation and promotion systems.

If you're looking for demographic information, we link to U.S. Census Bureau data, including quick fact sheets about Jacksonville and the surrounding counties.
